

The Dimmer View

BY MAX GOODWIN

There is a law which is very clear in regard to election material seeking to influence the outcome of an election.

California Election Code 5005 (1958) says succinctly that every person is guilty of a misdemeanor or who writes, causes to be written, prints or circulates such material without it carrying the name of the person or group who writes or the printer who prints the material.

Reason for the warning is a "tip" that material designed to vilify leaders of the community supporting incorporation is to be circulated as a "surprise" just before the election Tuesday.

The district attorney has been alerted to the possibility of such material and he assures us he will take vigorous steps to prosecute any Election Code infraction. Printing is easy to track to its source and the hazard of infraction of the election code is a risky one to take.

Simon Casady, the cantankerous editor of the El Cajon Valley News in Grossmont Hospital where medics are attempting to locate his heart to see if there is anything mechanically wrong with it.

Casady has been an outspoken critic of some of the district hospital's fiscal and administrative policies in the past and it was not surprising to us to learn that an overabundance of "angels in white" fluttered around Mr. Casady's bedside to make certain he was getting what he deserved.

Asked several times within a matter of hours if everything was all right, the Cass finally exploded: "What's all this fuss about? Of course everything is all right."

The nurse murmured pleasantly, "I hope you'll remember that when you get back to your newspaper" as she floated out of his room.

For what it means to each who reads it, December 5 will be the 25th anniversary of the repeal of prohibition. It was on this date in 1933 when the State Convention of Utah cast the 36th vote for repeal.

We have been called by anxious coupon book holders inquiring whether or not the coupons they purchased from high pressure salesmen at $5.95 a copy were still good following the arrest of the promoter of the scheme.

The complaints lodged against the head of the outfit should not invalidate the coupons. The purchaser is dealing with business firms of the area once they receive their books.

The San Diego Better Business Bureau charges the promoter with an infraction of the County Business and Professional Code but there has been no evidence that the coupons are invalid... so far.

The Lemon Grove Ministerial Association as co-sponsors with several local service clubs will have members circulating through the community Saturday offering "keys to the city" to local residents.

This project was dreamed up many weeks ago when the ministers of the community asked if money shouldn't be raised for bringing about the election on incorporation without the chamber of commerce having to resort to raffles or drawings.

The keys are 12-inch-long plastic keys with a thermometer built in. A legend, "best climate on earth" and a reproduction of the landmark, the big lemon, are printed on the keys. The keys in a cardboard container suitable for mailing, are well-worth the $1 which solicitors will be asking.

Booths will be set up in the business community and canvassers will comb the residential district

Seventeen Nominated For Chamber Board Race

A list of seventeen nominees who have agreed to serve as board members of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce went out to organization members this week, Ernest M. Newton, chamber president said.

Nominations will be open until November 29.

Others than those nominated may request their name to appear on the ballot. A petition signed by chamber members is necessary, however.

Election date is December 4 and the results of the election will be

CHURCH DRIVE—These three men and their organizations are urging everyone to attend church this month. From left, are Dan Hale, public relations manager for Foster and Kleiser, billboard advertising company; the Rev. Donald Cooke of the Lemon Grove Methodist church, and Jim Boyd, state director of the Lemon Grove junior chamber of commerce. The local junior chamber of commerce is conducting a month-long campaign for church attendance in cooperation with local churches. The billboard shown behind the three campaign leaders was erected and paid for at Campo road and Broadway by the Foster and Kleiser Co. The Grove-Spring Valley Ministerial association has commended the junior chamber for launching the drive which will end as the new year for all churches begins on November 30, the first Sunday of Advent.

Health Department Fearful As 60 LG Dogbites Are Listed

The San Diego Department of Public Health yesterday expressed concern over the large number of dog bites that have occurred in Lemon Grove by dogs that have not been vaccinated against rabies.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health, said last week a total of 60 dog bites have been reported in Lemon Grove in the last eight months. He said dogs involved in 21 of the bites had not been vaccinated and that the vaccination status of the dogs involved in nine of the rest of the bites was not known.

"It is of the utmost importance," Dr. Askew said, "that dog owners become fully aware of the facts about rabies. Rabies is always present in California wildlife. It is common among skunks, squirrels, coyotes and bobcats. Some of these animals are seen frequently in the canyons of our cities."

Dr. Askew pointed out that any dog running loose risks exposure to rabies. He added that if a dog is bitten by a rabid animal, it immediately threatens the humans with whom it lives as well as the neighborhood and surrounding community.

"The best preventive insurance a dog owner can have," Dr. Askew said, "is to have his dog vaccinated against rabies every two years. Vaccination can prevent infection of a dog with rabies, and it can bring peace of mind to the dog owner."

Another important advantage, Dr. Askew said, comes in knowing whether a dog that has bitten a person has been vaccinated. "A physician is better able to decide on the method of treating a person for dog bite," Dr. Askew said,

"if he knows whether the dog has been vaccinated."

In urging all dog owners to have their dogs vaccinated against rabies, Dr. Askew said, "In outlying areas of the county this is basic common sense protection. Once rabies develops in an animal or human, it is always fatal."

Two Streets Slated To Be County Roads

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Acceptance of two streets in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area into the county road system was recommended Friday by the county planning commission.

The commission will ask supervisors to approve making a county road of Costabella drive, from the east end of High street to the west end of freeway frontage road, providing property owners grant land for whatever road width the road department requires. The street is not to be accepted up to the boundaries of La Mesa, the commission decided.

The other street to be taken into the county system is Barbic lane in Casa de Oro. The lane runs south of Campo road, 250 feet east of Rogers road.

For Barbic lane's acceptance, property owners must first grant road widening donations satisfactory to the road department and must also improve the lane to county standards.

Mt. Miguel High Sets Polio 'Shots'

"Polio 'shots' will be given at Mt. Miguel high school Thursday of this week, 4 to 9 p.m., under the sponsorship of the Mt. Miguel PTA."

Everyone under the age of 40 is encouraged to take advantage of these inoculations. Fee will be $1. Local doctors will administer the shots with nurses in attendance.

If it has been 18 months since your third shot, it is time you have a "booster," says Mrs. Dale Hulet, PTA publicity chairman. If this is your first one, you are encouraged to take your second from your doctor. The PTA will not sponsor another series until next May.

Saturday Is K Day In Community

Saturday is K Day in Lemon Grove. The K is for keys and the keys are "keys to the city."

The Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Ministerial association in cooperation with local service clubs, will attempt to contact all local residents and urge them to buy 12-inch-long, $1 plastic keys. The keys, which have accurate thermometers built into them, will be sold to help defray the cost of bringing about the election Tuesday on incorporation.

In a joint statement, Rev. Don Cooke, pastor of the Lemon Grove Methodist church, and Rev. Bob Rochelle, pastor of the First Baptist church, said the effort was decided upon to replace plans for money raising by other groups which had raffles and drawings as a money raising gimmick.

Rev. Cooke said the association's aid in helping to pay the cost of an election did not necessarily indicate the sellers favor the issue nor oppose it. "It is meant to help pay for a community obligation," he said.

Rev. Rochelle said Rev. Walter Smith of the Lemon Grove Congregational church and Rev. Orval Butcher of the Skyline Wesleyan church would be in charge of recruitment of workers.

Booths are to be set up in the business section and canvassers will fan out through the residential section starting at 9 a.m. Saturday. Headquarters will be at the First Baptist church at Main and Burnell streets. Rev. Rochelle requested workers to report at 8:45. The drive will end at 5 p.m.

All leaders request volunteers to report at the starting time and those who wish to order keys, or volunteer for later in the day may do so by calling the Methodist church, HO 6-8065, or the Baptist church, HO 6-0340.

The keys are suitably packaged for mailing and are excellent souvenirs or gifts, the leaders pointed out. They are light green plastic with gold lettering attesting to Lemon Grove as having the "best climate on earth." A picture of the huge lemon is also imprinted.

The keys may also be obtained at most of the local business shops.

Jackpot Prizes Unclaimed Again

Jackpot prizes went unclaimed once again Friday night because persons whose names were drawn weren't present.

Lorena Roper of 3417 Trophy drive, La Mesa, would have been the top winner when a ticket with her name on it was drawn. She would have won $240 for 20 percent of the $1200 in the "pot."

Four other names were picked from the huge drum of tickets. They were: G. L. Lofquist, 3640 Costabella, 10 percent; Richard Green, 7740 Normal, five percent; Mrs. Loneta Janice, 2101 Imperial avenue, 10 percent; and Lillis Rojas, 1625 Dupont, 10 percent.

The weekly drawings are held on Fridays at 7 p.m. at the Lemon Grove plaza. Tickets are distributed without charge by Lemon Grove merchants.

Girls' Club Reschedules Car Wash For Saturday

A car wash, sponsored by the Court Jesters, a teenage girls' social service club, has been rescheduled for Saturday of this week at Bud Young's service station, Cypress and n.d. Imperial streets, Lemon Grove. The car wash was set to be held November 15 but was postponed because of unfavorable weather.

Tickets, 80 cents, can be purchased in advance at the service station. A fee of $1 will be charged on November 22.

The Court Jesters are sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary, Post 2082.

26 Candidates Vie For Mayor, City Council Posts

There will be 26 candidates listed for city council Tuesday on the official ballot on incorporation. Eligible voters numbering 8,185 have received sample ballots and are deciding if they want their own city and what five councilmen they want to govern it. The candidate who receives the most votes usually becomes mayor.

Candidates have flooded the electorate with information about themselves. Proponents and opponents of the issue have had their say. The election campaign has been clean, with a minimum amount of name calling and animosity.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at sixteen local addresses.

Polling places are located at 7300 Pearson street; 7504 Broadway; 6905 Central; 7059 San Miguel and 6965 Mt. Vernon.

Also: 7550 Canton drive; 1534 Skyline drive; 2121 Englewood drive; 2330 Edgerton drive and 7413 Tracy.

Also: 7220 San Miguel; 2810 Main street; 8145 Imperial; 3205 Washington; 2770 Dennis lane and 8425 Palm.

Candidates are: Earl Andrix, a retired engineer; Ralph Armstrong, a retired narcotics agent; Fred Brauer, a builder and Dr. Robert Burns, a veterinarian.

Also: Joe Cannizzaro, store buyer; Dr. Gilbert Chassy, a physician; Florence Cuestau, a housewife; Frank Doolin, a salesdriver and V. J. Dorman, an attorney.

Also: Ira Durham, a salesman; Harry Griffen, a broker; Charles Krassey, a realtor and Capt. Jesse Lee, retired navy officer.

Also: E. H. Loveland, personnel administrator; Roger Martin, electrician; James McEntee, navy, retired and Dr. Dennis McLaughlin dentist.

Also: Joseph Payson, president of junior chamber of commerce; Norman Polakowski, tool designer; Lawrence Sozanni, accountant and Jim Spears, auto dealer.

Also: Helen Tuve, teacher; Harry Valasek, engineer; Bill Vandenberg, dry cleaner, Robert Vaughn, photo supplier and Lawrence Vlach, banker.

The decision to ask for an election on incorporation followed a study made by the Los Angeles Bureau of Municipal Research in 1957 under the auspices of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce. The study indicated that incorporation would be the best form of government for the community. Annexation and remaining "as is," the report indicated, were neither feasible nor desirable.

The chamber of commerce then set up a Committee of 1,000 for Incorporation under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Louella Fellows and Capt. H. E. LeBarron. This committee has been at work bringing about the mechanics of the election.

Campaign headquarters were established at 3492 Main street and an educational program was begun, following the setting of boundaries of the proposed new city by the county boundary commission.

Most of the 26 candidates for serving as the first city council have been campaigning vigorously. An independent survey organization during the past few

Rites Held For Ethel Goffney

Funeral services were held November 13 at Lemon Grove Congregational church for Mrs. Ethel Goffney, 63, of 3760 Milton road, who died November 10 at a hospital following surgery. Mrs. Goffney was a resident of this area for 10 years.

She is survived by her husband, Rev. Waldemar Goffney and four sons, David, Joseph, Bruce and Wally.

Cremation followed local funeral services with memorial services and interment scheduled November 19 at Riverside cemetery in South Bend, Indiana.

TO TRY TRIKE TESTS AGAIN

The San Miguel elementary school bicycle safety tests, cancelled Saturday because of rain, will be held this Saturday. Tests will be run off 9 to 11 a.m. Volunteer testers will be San Miguel elementary school parents, Ben Schei, school principal said.

Liquor Legal Election Day

C. C. Miller, supervising agent for the state board of equalization, Alcoholic Beverage Control department, said that bars and liquor stores may remain open Tuesday November 25 the day of the election on incorporation in Lemon Grove.

He said that closing was required on city, state, county, general or federal elections.

If the election issue is successful, liquor establishments must close during future city elections, he said.

Fund-Raising Club Schedules Meet

The Mt. Miguel Boosters club, recently formed to raise money for much needed facilities at Mt. Miguel high school, will meet for the first time Tuesday of next week, 7:30 p.m., in the wrestling room at the school.

The organization recently presented a 300-name petition to the Grossmont school board requesting funds be apportioned for lights, bleachers, score board and added grass at the school's football field. Lewis Smith, Grossmont school district superintendent, informed them the requested facilities are far down the priority list.

The Boosters hope to acquire funds for the facilities by staging a dance December 13 in the school cafeteria and through donations.

Other money-raising projects will be discussed during the meeting Tuesday night. All parents of Mt. Miguel students and other interested persons are urged to attend.

COURT GETS SITE

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—El Cajon will be the site of the second courtroom in the El Cajon judicial district, the county board of supervisors decided last week. They took the action at a meeting Wednesday after putting it off when it came up November 10 as an item on the agenda.

T. M. Heggland, chief county administrator officer, was directed to conclude a lease for use of El Cajon's city council chambers. Jean L. Vincenz, public works director, was instructed to start preparing plans for construction of an addition to the building housing the present courtroom.

Gilbert Harelson, recently appointed as second judge in the judicial district by Governor Goodwin Knight, is presiding in the new court.

Apartment Zoning Request Turned Down By Planners

SAN DIEGO (CNS) A request for apartment house zoning along Sweetwater road, from Jamacha road to Helix high school, was turned down by the county planning commission Friday. Commission members said it would boost values on land needed for the belt line freeway. The state department of highways is planning a freeway in the area to connect highway 101 with the highway 94 freeway. The highway department is keeping secret the exact route for the freeway.

The commission had approved the zoning asked by Bollenbacher and Kelson, a firm subdividing the area, on September 12, but the board of supervisors had refused to accept the commission's recommendation. At the request of road commissioner Joseph Mack, supervisors asked the planning group to reconsider its decision.

Mack repeated his protests at the Friday session of the planning commission, saying it would cost more to buy apartment house land for a freeway right-of-way than it would be to buy single family residential land.

The subdividers said the land was only suitable for apartments. They sought the zoning on grounds that the road might not go through. They asked for the zone change now so it would not be subject to protests expected after the area was built up.

"I'm sympathetic to Bollenbacher and Kelson," commissioner George Johnson said, "but I'm not willing to jack up the price that will have to be paid for the right-of-way."

Mack said, "I don't think the line of the freeway is going to shift, whether the state or the county puts in the road. With houses going up all around, the route can't be changed."

Norton B. Randall, representing Bollenbacher and Kelson, asked for a chance to be heard but was told it was not a public hearing and all the evidence had been taken September 12. The commission then voted to retract its apartment house zoning recommendation and instead suggest to Supervisors single residence zoning. The rest of the area has single residence zoning.

In his reassurances on the route of the belt line freeway, Mack said the only reason the county is currently buying rights-of-way in the area is because it has used up its funds for projects scheduled to be worked on soon.

Hospital Women Get Commendation For Annual Harvest Ball Effort

A highlight of the November executive board meeting of Grossmont hospital women's auxiliary, held Friday with the president, Mrs. Von N. Marshall, presiding, was the reading of a resolution unanimously passed by the hospital's board of directors, commending the auxiliary on their annual harvest balls.

The balls were characterized in the resolution as an institution worthy of perpetuation for the hospital's and the community's benefit, and persons responsible for the balls' financial and social success praised for their achievement.

A net profit of more than $1,700 on this year's ball, held October 4, was announced by the ball's chairman, Mrs. Mearl L. Baker, in making her report to the board. The micro-film viewer-printer paid for from the proceeds, is now in daily use in the medical records library of Grossmont hospital. Purchasing items of equipment for the hospital when needed—instead of doing without or waiting until they could be purchased by the hospital—is the sole objective of auxiliary fund-raising.

The board ratified the president's recently announced appointment of Mrs. Carl Stansbury as junior membership chairman and senior advisor for the juniors.

Miss Katherin Cline, Grossmont hospital's new director of public relations and personnel, was introduced to the board and spoke briefly.

Tax Comparison Made In Survey Tabs

This is the final instalment of the survey made by the Los Angeles Bureau of Municipal Research. It contains the tables showing reasons why the election should be held: factual data showing where funds will come from for the operation of the city; why it comes, and what funds may be used for and comparisons of other cities.

The series of four is completed with this issue. The entire series is being reprinted in a special edition which will be distributed Monday.

Transitional Service:

County services to unincorporated territory continue without change to the end of the fiscal year following incorporation. Income from state subventions, sales taxes and operational revenue commence immediately. Continued service by the county can be arranged—but a city should contemplate the assumption of all responsibilities when fully organized and financially operative. Incorporation does not divorce territory from county government; its purpose is to identify and endow the inhabitants with participative citizenship.

Re: Annexation to San Diego:

A memorandum concerning annexation to San Diego was prepared for you several months ago. Summarized, annexation to San Diego City would have these results:

1. Maintenance of existing streets according to their character, ultimately bringing non-conforming streets to City standards and improvements under 1911 Act—Special Assessments.
2. Maintain existing sewers and integrate with the City system; dissolution of Lemon Grove Sanitation District.
3. Collection and disposal of garbage and refuse.
4. "An additional 227 street lights would be installed," by special assessment financing.
5. Provision for 18 policemen and 3 sergeants to maintain City standard patrol, traffic and investigation service.
6. Lemon Grove Fire District would be dissolved and eligible men taken into city force—a full Engineer Company of 11 men would be stationed in the area.
7. The City would maintain two supervised playgrounds and integrate recreational facilities with the adjacent and City-wide system.
8. Would continue present library until a new building is made available; $.07 tax rate would be dropped.

Estimated Costs
Under Annexation:
To finance the foregoing municipal services, the City of San Diego would collect from the Lemon Grove area property taxes and other revenues (exclusive of special assessments, approximately the following:

City prop. tax at $1.63 $ 308,106
Subventions and Grants 162,119
Operational Revenues 345,255
Sales Tax Revenue 265,000

TOTAL $1,080,480
Est. Amt. Per Cap. $ 46.35

Conservatively, this Lemon Grove contribution to the annual income of the City of San Diego would be equal to a tax rate of $5.65 per $100 of the 1957-58 Lemon Grove assessed valuations.

San Diego's costs for providing municipal services are fairly comparable to those of other San Diego county cities (see Table V showing per capita averages for all San Diego county cities for 1955-56).

The above estimated sales tax revenue of Lemon Grove was calculated on a per capita basis comparable to the La Mesa expectancy from payments of the 3rd quarter 1957. Income from this source varies according to a city's merchandising facilities, initiative, and reputation (see table X).

In Los Angeles County, selected satellite cities will receive 1957 sales taxes from the State Board of Equalization as follows:

Typical Sales Tax Collections Los Angeles County Cities

City	Pop.	'57 Sales Tax*
Arcadia	38,138	$ 400,000
Bell	18,517	291,000
Beverly Hills	30,594	1,552,000
El Monte	11,483	410,000
Huntington Pk.	31,676	1,071,500
Monrovia	25,463	400,000
San Fernando	15,771	827,000
San Gabriel	22,701	368,000
Whittier	32,205	749,000

* Estimated from 3rd quarter payments.

Municipal identity and local initiative under responsive government accounts in a large measure for the exceptional sales tax yields cited above. The amount captured exceeds the resident potential of the cities by some $2,554,000 a year.

Regardless of how efficient the conventional services of San Diego City might be after annexation, recaptured subventions and sales taxes, along with the property tax revenue, would pass into the metropolitan city treasury to be distributed under geographic restrictions somewhat similar to those of a county. Civic authority would be more remote and your particular needs would have to be weighed against those of other segments of the greater city.

Annexation Experience:
In municipal as well as other affairs, we learn much from experience. The City of Los Angeles has had few annexations in recent years, notwithstanding abundant water, power, harbor and airport facilities of great worth.

Annexed Hollywood, Eagle Rock, San Pedro, Wilmington, Sawtelle, Venice and Watts were once independent cities like Beverly Hills, San Marino, Torrance, Inglewood and South Gate. With lost identity, they are now indistinguishable and officially inarticulate.

Retail trade expansion throughout the Nation is greatest in the satellite or suburban cities of metropolitan areas. Sales in major segments of Los Angeles City compared with nearby cities—1948 to 1954—as follows:

Re: Incorporation
Cities are authorized by law known as the Municipal Incorporation Bill of 1883 whereby any portion of a county containing not less than 500 inhabitants may become incorporated to exercise "the powers conferred, by law, upon municipal corporations of the class to which the same may belong."

From the tax revenue aggregates shown in Tables I and II, the cities are given the city property tax of $1.00 per $100 of assessed value; per capita amounts of State-collected motor vehicle and motor fuel taxes; liquor license taxes collected from licensees doing business in the city—and miscellaneous other revenue (see Table IV). These revenues are about equal in total amount to the county's expenditures for 1957-58.

City property taxes averaged 34.7 percent of the total revenue in 1955-56; but the Bradley-Burns Sales Tax Law of 1955 has increased sales tax revenue of San Diego county cities by a current $272,822 per year or 42 percent.

California cities are well established by law, custom and experience to keep the peace, provide services, and promote the economic and social welfare of resident citizens. In their evolutionary development, the cities, under local home rule, have been responsible for purified domestic water, sewers and sewage disposal, paved streets, street cleaning, street lighting, efficient police and fire protection, parks and playgrounds, and the orderly planning, beautification and modernization of cities. In short, city government has striven to provide environmental services and amenities to complement the homes and ideals of its inhabitants.

Average Tax-Equivalent Cost Of Selected City Services:

The average cost of municipal services in San Diego county cities, exclusive of water and public utilities (Table V, may be converted to the equivalent of a Lemon Grove property tax rate for 1957-58 as follows:

Function	Cost As Tax Rate
General Government	$0.41
Protection Services
Police	.90
Fire	.59
Other	.30
Sanitation	.69
Streets and Lighting	1.14
Education - Library	.20
Recreation	.71
Miscellaneous	.69
TOTAL	$5.63*

* Average per capita city costs divided by Lemon Grove per capita assessed valuation—1957-58.

Cities are able to provide the above services, under a $1.00 city tax rate limit, or less, because they share the State collected taxes listed on Tables II and IV, lately supplemented by a 42 percent increase of retail sales taxes collected for them by the State under the Bradley-Burns Uniform Sales Tax Law.

Property Taxed to Limit

A sampling of the taxation of 202 Lemon Grove homes disclosed that the average real property assessment is:

Land	$ 885
Improvements	2,675
TOTAL	$3,560

Exclusive of personal property, the average 1957-58 property tax per home will be $247.77. The annual rental value implied by such taxation is $1,960 per year, exclusive of public utilities, gardening, and general upkeep.

Property taxes should be minimized because home owners pay all of the other taxes shown in Tables I and II—and for the more important reasons that taxes are a first lien on property which may be taxed for State purposes if other revenues prove

Election Literature Must Be Signed Says District Attorney

District attorney Don Keller said this week he would take "vigorous action" if there was evidence that material seeking to influence the election on incorporation was distributed without carrying a "source" line.

California elections code section 5005 requires that the writer or printer must be identified on this type of material.

Residents receiving unsigned literature of this nature are requested to submit it to the district attorney's office.

Inadequate. Tax risk affects interest rates and the resale value of homes. The power to tax property, therefore, should be under Home Rule as far as possible.

Commercial Opportunity

Lemon Grove is central to a region of high buying power—present and future. Within the 3-mile radius shown on map (page 8), you may expect a demand for goods and services aggregated $220,000,000 annually. The more your merchandisers share in that business the lighter will be your property tax burden.

Cityhood Is Modern

There was a time when an unincorporated status was best for the Lemon Grove community—during the agricultural era, when taxes were low, water plentiful, sewers unnecessary, school attendance light and county supervisors able to give individual attention to the occasional needs of the district. However, that time has passed; Lemon Grove is now municipal in character and should incorporate so as to eliminate or minimize the uncertainties of jurisdiction and taxation.

To summarize, incorporation will give Lemon Grove:

1. Official identity and authority;
2. Better community house-keeping.
3. Local control of land use and public services;
4. Improved parking facilities for revenue-producing retail trade;
5. Use of State-collected taxes for local benefits;
6. More reasonable and stable property taxes;
7. A voice in public affairs and tax policies;
8. Better protection of life and property;
9. Improved cultural facilities and amenities;
10. Higher property values.

PURPOSE OF TABLES TECHNICAL NOTES

Table I lists direct taxes collected by political agencies functioning within the State.

State-collected taxes, detailed in Table II, provide the so-called "assistance to local government" or subventions. More correctly defined, these are "shared" taxes which can be more efficiently and economically collected by the State than by the counties and/or cities. The only subvention received by Lemon Grove is for public schools (Table III) . . . footnote.

Per capita income and expense of local government, Tables IV and V, are compared by San Diego county cities. Comparability is more uniform on a statewide basis. Current expense and capital outlay from loans or special assessments are sometimes commingled, which explains the fluctuating averages.

Personal incomes in San Diego county, Tables VI and VII, are shown in relation to State and National averages and as a trend in relation to State averages. It is from this stream of income that the needs of the people must be met in addition to the demands of taxation.

Dwelling Units, Table VIII, and School Enrollment, Table IX, measure service needs and markets—local and regional.

The sales tax revenue forecast by sales tax collection of San Diego county cities is compared with their retail sales record of the U.S. Business Census, Tables X and XI. Sales tax receipts do not fully measure retail sales expectancy because of exemptions.

Retail sales per square mile in San Diego and Los Angeles county cities, Tables XII and XIII, show the effect of adequate provision for shopping and service establishments and measure the consequent high yield of sales tax revenue therefrom.

Table XIV compares sales tax receipts with parking meter revenue before the Bradley-Burns sales tax law became effective. Parking meter revenue is not included in Lemon Grove revenue estimates because metered parking tends to divert shopping patronage to areas where adequate free parking is available.

Geodesic Dome For New Building At County Fair Grounds

A new floriculture building at the Southern California exposition at Del Mar is assured with the allocation of $10,000 by the Public Works board, manager Paul T. Mannen said this week.

These funds will go towards initial plans. Exposition directors favor a geodesic dome similar to the one to be constructed at Palomar junior college at San Marcos. This type is particularly suitable for displays because inside structural columns are completely eliminated, Mannen pointed out.

Meanwhile, directors are hopeful they can call for bids in January for the construction of a horse show arena. Several revisions have been made in the original plans.

Directors have set December 15 as the day they will interview applicants for the position of manager. Mannen has announced he will resign after the 1959 exposition which ends July 5.

Visitors to the 20th annual presentation will have the opportunity of seeing the entire 6,000-piece John Sheedy Indian exhibit in Harvest hall. Thereafter only 20 percent of it will be shown annually. Harvest hall will be devoted exclusively to agriculture and the Indian collection in 1959. Indian sand painters and weavers from Arizona will augment the display.

Dance Ensemble To Show Here

The noted Dance Ensemble of Nora Kovach and Istvan Rabovsky with Barbara Fallis and Royes Fernandez will appear at 8:15 p.m. Monday in Grossmont high school auditorium the next event on the 1958-59 series. The four noted dancers will present a program of great moments from famous ballets.

Kovach and Rabovsky are the Hungarian-born Russian-trained dancers who have scored so resoundingly in their many appearances on the Ed Sullivan show, with the Ballets de Paris and London's Festival Ballet. Brought up in Budapest and trained at the Opera there, the couple were selected by the great Soviet ballerina Ulanova to study dance in the Soviet Union, where they rapidly became leading dancers. On a cultural mission to East Berlin they slipped over the border into the American zone and were quickly signed by noted impresario S. Hurok. They are among the few Soviet-trained ballet dancers to be seen in the western world.

Kovach-Rabovsky

Royes Fernandez is one of Ballet Theatre's leading dancers, appearing on the current tour by arrangement with that important company. Barbara Fallis, from the New York City Ballet, has also danced important roles with Ballet Theatre. Born in Denver, she studied in London, and made her debut with the famous Sadler's Wells Ballet.

Featured on the ensemble's program will be scenes from such ballets as "The Nutcracker," "Giselle," and "Esmeralda," and from a ballet little known here, "Bayaderes," which is one of the most famous ballets in the Russian repertoire.

Also on the program will be such new ballets as "The Saffron Knot" to music by Wagner, "Melody" based on Orfeo and Euridice, and a jazz ballet called "East of 5th."

Howard Barr and Julian Elbaz, pianists, will accompany the dancers.

'Cast A Proud Shadow' Premier Set For January

"Cast A Proud Shadow," movie written and directed by Rene La France of the Motion Picture Workshop of La Mesa, will have its premier January 8 at the La Mesa Art Center. On January 9-10 there will be showings at 7:15 and 9:15 p.m.

Tickets are on sale and the proceeds will go to the non-profit organization, which is in its third year. Instead of stage work the group decided to make the film so the actors may see the results from the audience viewpoint. The group makes the costumes, designs the sets, builds the props, does the makeup and all other phases of the industry before going before the cameras.

The new picture has its shooting schedule completed except for dubbing-in of the musical score and art work. Most of the outdoor locations were shot in Spring Valley and Sorrento Valley. The interior of the Last Chance saloon where the boys "whooped it up" was taken at the Growler Cafe in Spring Valley. It was the only place in San Diego county suitable as a Montana barroom in 1890.

The story deals with the incidents in the life of Charles M. Russell, cowboy artist and painter of Indians. Russell's part is played by Rene La France. The supporting cast includes Dutch Borst, Bill Ford and Charles "Tex" Lawhorn, all of Spring Valley.

The La France Motion Picture Workshop operates in a small area but has the reproduction qualities of Hollywood operations. The idea of the public showing is to recapture some of the cost that has gone into production.

Because of the outstanding work of the cast in the film La France said he is making arrangements to invite talent scouts from the major Hollywood studios, with the hope some of the players may find a place in that field, especially the younger members. The cast's ages run from 7 to 78 years.

"It's amazing the interest the cast takes and the eagerness they have to learn, no matter what the age," said La France.

Besides La France and the Spring Valley actors, the cast includes: Gary Proffer (as young Charles Russell), Geneva Churchill, Marie Grable and Bill Bennett, all of La Mesa; Gob Glinkman, John Clark, Lester McIntosh, Cliff Hansen, Perc Griffin, Nick Radavitch, and Mario Reeves, all of San Diego; and Buzz Brunn and Bill Niemann of Del Mar.

Buying for cash and saving some of your income by investing in government bonds is one way to insure one's prosperity against times of depression.

Tax Forms Being Readied For Mail

The largest direct mailing of federal income tax forms in the history of the Los Angeles collection district was announced today by Robert A. Riddell, district director of Internal Revenue.

Riddell said 3,102,767 tax returns (form 1040 and form 1040A) for area taxpayers will be placed in the mail in late December.

Riddell said taxpayers will find no substantial changes in form 1040 for 1958 over last year's return. A revised form 1040A, allowing most taxpayers with an income of less than $10,000 to file on the simple card form, was announced earlier by the service. The former maximum income limit was $5,000.

Forms will also be available at any Internal Revenue service office during the filing period and at most post offices and banks.

THELMA WALTERS

HOME ECONOMIST OF THE

SAN DIEGO

GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY

SUGGESTS:

If entertaining has in other years taken the "holiday" out of the "holiday season" for you, you'll want to attend the timely program I'm presenting on Tuesday, November 25, at the San Diego Gas & Electric Company's Eastern District Office in El Cajon. The address is 104 North Johnson Street and we'll meet from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The subject of the eleventh in this year's series of "Better Living... Automatically" programs is "Holiday Entertaining Made Easy." It will feature the use of portable table appliances in quickly and easily preparing, distinctive, compliment-winning refreshments. You'll discover how much easier and fun party-giving for invited guests or spur-of-the-moment entertaining for unexpected guests can be when these small, handy appliances are used to full advantage. In my demonstration I'll be using a variety of them, ranging from a portable oven-toaster, combination waffle-iron and sandwich-grill to a skillet, saucpan, and blender.

Use of these small appliances is not just seasonal at holiday time. Any day in the year you'll find them handy to serve the children much-to-be-preferred hot lunches instead of sandwiches, prepare delicious Sunday night snacks for your family and friends instead of serving unimaginative cold cuts, use them right at the dining table—saving yourself unnecessary footsteps and dishes to wash, and enjoy their on-the-spot convenience when preparing and serving food for outdoor patio meals.

As as added bit to the program, I'm planning to show you some "tricks of the trade" in decorating foods, which makes them even more attractive when served. I'll be looking forward to seeing you next Tuesday. As usual there'll be door prizes and the refreshments will be better than ever.

LOCAL GUITARIST—Mrs. Sara Kreger, Spring Valley junior high school music teacher, will be a featured performer at a hootnanny, a folk song festival, at 8 p.m., Saturday of this week, in the Jewish community center, 4079 54th street, San Diego. Mrs. Kreger is the treasurer of the folk song society of San Diego and co-sponsor of the hootnanny. The event will be the first of its kind in San Diego, according to Sam Hinton, La Jolla folk singer and Decca recording artist. Hinton will be master of ceremonies at the event.

Newspaper Hall of Fame Winners To Be Announced December 5

Justus F. Craemer, president of the California Press association, announced today that winners of annual state-wide newspaper hall of fame honors, inaugurated last year, will be revealed at the CPA awards dinner to be held at the Clift hotel, San Francisco, on December 5.

Joseph R. Knowland, veteran publisher of the Oakland Tribune, will again serve as chairman of the state panel of 15 judges, including the following named by the San Francisco and Los Angeles chapters of Eigma Delta Chi, Theta Sigma Phi, the California Newspaper Publishers association and the California Press association:

Ford Chatters, Lindsay Gazette; Edmond Coblenz, editorial counselor, Hearst Newspapers; E. F. Elftrom, Fullerton News-Tribune; Gordon Hadley, Arcata Union; Herbert H. Krauch, Los Angeles Herald-Express; Paul Leake, Wooland Democrat;

Richard Litfin, United Press International; John Long, general manager, CNPA; George Murphy, Manteca Bulletin; Mrs. Wanda Phillips, Beverly Hills Citizen; Miss Anna Rind, San Francisco Council of Civic Unity; John Angeles district attorney's office; William Shea, San Diego Union Tribune; and Todd Watkins, Chalfant Press, Bishop, California.

Officers of the hall of fame include Lowell E. Jensen, president of the Livermore Valley Publishing Co., and Secretary John H. McCoy, director of the school of journalism, University of Southern California. Philip N. McCombs, treasurer of the California Press association, serves in the same capacity for the awards project.

Research papers covering the life and contributions of nominees for 1958 hall of fame awards were prepared for the judges this year by students of seven college and university departments of journalism: Stanford University, California Polytechnic Institute, University of California, San Francisco City college, and Fresno, Sacramento, and San Jose state colleges.

LG Intersection Closed To Left Turns

The state division of highways has announced the highway 80-College avenue intersection has been closed to left-turn movements. District engineer Jacob Dekema said repeated accidents at the intersection, northwest of Lemon Grove, prompted the action in the interest of saving lives and lowering property damage to the motorist.

Although bids for reconstruction of U.S. 80 to full freeway standards through this area are being called for, actual interchange construction at College avenue is far enough in the future to warrant the action, Dekema said.

Some change in driving patterns and some out-of-direction travel may be necessary, but complete operation of the new traffic interchange at Lake Murray boulevard and at Fairmount avenue should allow motorists greater freedom of movement with complete safety, Dekema added.

HOW TO SHOOT A TURKEY

It takes more than one shot to bag a turkey... on film. To really do justice to your Thanksgiving dinner, try shooting a picture sequence. (It's not only a lot of fun—but it will keep you occupied during that tantalizing wait for the dinner bell to ring.)

Here's a suggested sequence that you can use as a spring board for your own ideas:

1. Mom getting the turkey ready for the oven.
 2. Guests arriving at the front door.
 3. Dad peeking impatiently into the oven.
 4. Mom proudly carrying the turkey into the dining room.
 5. Dad carving the bird.
 6. Junior happily attacking a drumstick.
 7. Sis pushing back her empty plate.
 8. Your favorite uncle enjoying a post-dinner nap on the sofa.
- Sounds like fun doesn't it? But a word of advice. Bring in your camera and flashholder before Turkey Day so we can make sure your equipment is in good working condition.

Closing Commercial: We have fresh supplies of your favorite Kodak black-and-white and color films. Plus flashbulbs and batteries to fit your flashholder. Lay in a good supply so you won't run short right in the midst of your sequence.

The show will be opened officially when San Diego's Mayor Dail pulls the switch lighting Christmas tree lane which runs the full length of Laurel street through Balboa park. "Mr. Santa Claus" will be on hand to greet the children and then serve as host during the show's six-day stay.

Among the feature exhibits will be a spectacular demonstration of stereo-sound—the new dimension in hi-fi, the first television set, startling new applications for transistors, solar battery uses, a mass television antenna display, and a model train of interest to young and old alike.

As usual there will be many door prizes given away. Daily drawings are held at 4:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

It is a good project for an election already called and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the individuals offering the keys for sale, as the saying goes. In the interest of the democratic processes we urge you to buy one.

Up and down the state, according to a bulletin from the state association of newspaper publishers, promoters are running rife with all sorts of schemes dedicated to separate you from your money.

Often they approach the local newspaper first... and when they do it here we check their references. More often they come to the newspaper after some group or business organization has put their blessings on the project. Then it is usually too late.

A special note of warning advises against letting these people borrow printed stationery. This could be disastrous.

Most towns have a special committee of the chamber of commerce whose responsibility is to pass or reject these promotions. With the holidays here, we are warned, the promotional tempo will increase.

Sign up with care!

Jr. Hi Band To March In Goose Parade

EL CAJON—The Lemon Grove junior high school and the award-winning Helix high school bands are included in the record 32 bands highlighting the 1958 Mother Goose parade here Sunday at 2 p.m.

Monte Hall, San Diego television celebrity, has been named grand marshal of the parade that expects to perform before a crowd of 300,000 or more, according to president Ralph D. May.

Thirty-two floats, representing themes from Mother Goose nursery rhymes, highlights the huge assemblage of 125 units. Marching units, political figures and movie and television personalities and numerous special units make up the remainder of the 12th annual children's parade.

Bonnie Wheeler, 17-year-old Grossmont high school senior, reigns over this year's parade with her maid-of-honor Michael Jespersen and the 10 runners-up for the Cinderella princess crown.

Expected to attract considerable attention are the Weaver clowns, a Lakeside unicycle group and the quarter midget drill team sponsored by College Center Optimist club.

El Cajon's own Mother Goose float is again entered.

★ Evidence has revealed that auto accident victims without safety belts suffer more serious injuries.

Attorney, Broker Change Addresses

W. Earl Smart, attorney at law, and Jack Durham, insurance broker, have moved to the building at 7810 Golden avenue, formerly occupied by the county library. They formerly shared an address in the First National bank building at 7809 Golden.

The men reported their telephone numbers would remain the same and plans for an "open house" are under way.

Our taxes can and should be lowered and services improved. I sincerely pledge my experience and utmost efforts to serve the residents of Lemon Grove to the very best of my ability," he concluded.

LG Author's Play Will Be Staged At Balboa Park

Roland Haworth of 8295 Panchoy lane, Lemon Grove, will be one of nine San Diego county authors to compete in the eighth annual original one act play festival to be staged by the Little Theatre league of San Diego county Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week in the Puppet theatre, Balboa park.

His play, a comedy entitled "Pin Curl Party" will be the opening number on the program Thursday evening and will feature members of the Rogues and Vagabonds in the cast. Barbara Arbuckle, Ann Hudgins, Donna Simoneau, Gina Kuchenmeister make up the quartet of do-it-yourself beauticians with Vern Baer as the lone male in the melée. Haworth is directing his own work.

All nine of the plays were chosen by a screening committee consisting of Mrs. Hunton D. Sellman, Carl Glick and Edward Longstreth from fourteen entries. They are original one act plays which have never been produced.

Judges will give critiques of the plays and make awards for the best three, as well as for the best comedy and tragedy, the best performance by an actor and actress and best direction.

The winner of the best play award will also receive the Alice Craig Greene memorial trophy.

City Council Candidate

Roger S. Martin, 46, of 2025 Skyline drive, is a journeyman electrician and a native of Grove City, Minnesota. He came to San Diego in 1943 and moved to Lemon Grove in 1949. He and his wife, Lucille, have one son. He attends the Baptist church. "If elected as your councilman," he said, "I will work for needed road repairs and better road and building inspection. I am also interested," he continued, "in more sidewalks for children's safety when walking to and from school. I will study the reason for increase of taxes when Lemon Grove incorporates. Our money from taxes will be spent on Lemon Grove improvements. Incorporation of Lemon Grove will mean your taxation dollar will be spent in Lemon Grove."

Dear Prospective Council Members of Lemon Grove:

I noticed that in your budget you did not include a salary for a city manager or his assistant. Informed citizens realize that to do the job properly the city manager would have to give it a lot more time than possible when holding down another position. Then too, a city attorney to straighten out the muddle created by ambition and shortsightedness. Take a good look at Lemon Grove and the condition of the roads alone. Can you with a clear conscience tell the taxpayers that you can do the necessary rebuilding or putting in new roads without much greater taxation.

If you directed your zeal toward getting after the county board of supervisors for repairs and for building new roads, you then might be ready for incorporation a year or two from now.

Baby Race Score, 3-1

Spring Valley has outpointed Lemon Grove by a 3-1 margin in the baby production race at Grossmont hospital. In fact, that was the score from November 5 to November 11: three babies born to Spring Valley families and one born to a Lemon Grove family. All four were girls.

The lone baby born to the Lemon Grove family was a tiny girl, four pounds, three ounces, property of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Salgado of 1600 Skyline drive.

Spring Valley new misses were born to: Mr. and Mrs. John Towler of 8049 Troy, seven pounds, two ounces; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Labeta of 1359 Sweetwater lane, seven pounds, 12 1/2 ounces; and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Britt of 4114 Citradore, seven pounds, eight ounces.

Pancakes For Cub Pack 153

Cub Scout Pack 153 of Vista La Mesa is having a pancake supper Saturday at Vista La Mesa Christian church.

The event is sponsored by Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour Co. Cakes will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Only fathers and sons of the pack are to take part in the supper.

City Council Candidate

Lawrence F. Vlach, 3282 Kempf street, USMC Ret., is the auditor of the San Diego Trust & Savings bank. Vlach is a 10 year resident of Lemon Grove. He is a native of Illinois and has resided in California since 1941. Vlach retired from the United States Marines Corps as a result of wounds received in combat during World War II. "I believe that if the residents of Lemon Grove desire to maintain the present limits of the area, to preserve the name of Lemon Grove and to have a voice in self government, they should take positive action. If not, the area must, by necessity, be gradually reduced and annexed to surrounding areas, ultimately leaving the remaining residents no choice but to receive that which may be offered to them," Vlach said. Vlach said that Lemon Grove needs many things and he intends to see that the community gets them by fair and just procedure. Vlach and his wife, Mary, have been married for 26 years.

Matadors Lose By Field Goal

In a hard-fought game in Helix stadium, Escondido defeated Mt. Miguel high school 16-14 on a field goal with three minutes left in the game.

First quarter play started with a bang as the Cougars took a Miguel punt and scored six plays later. Dennis Snyder scored for the Cougars on a 10 yard pass from Steve Thurlow. The PAT was not successful. Three minutes later the Matadors' Rocky Barsotti scored on a nine-yard run to climax a 67 yard drive. Jerry Lipscomb booted the extra point.

Early in the second quarter Escondido's Jim Gabbard scored on a 35 yard pass and run play. Martin kicked the PAT to bring the score to 13 to 7. Mt. Miguel recovered an Escondido fumble on the 48-yard line and nine plays later Peter Pernigan dove over from two yards out for the score. Lipscomb kicked his second PAT. The half ended with the score 14 to 13 for Mt. Miguel.

In the fourth quarter Escondido drove from their 25 to Miguel's 15 where Martin kicked the field goal with three minutes left in the game. On minute later Toby Thurlow intercepted one of Jerhigan's passes to stop any chance Miguel had of winning the game.

Second Grade Students Tour Fire Department

Forty-five second grade students from the new San Alitos school in Lemon Grove visited the Lemon Grove fire department Tuesday as part of their study of community organization.

Accompanied by Mrs. Doris Sussan and Mrs. Dorothy Himmer, teachers, the students learned about community protection and the role that children play in safeguarding their homes and town.

LEMON GROVE VOTERS BEWARE!

Beware of any material which may come to you unsigned or without source of authorship.

It has been rumored that certain "outside influences" may make a last minute attempt to "smear" some candidates or the issue of incorporation itself.

Do not be misled by these unscrupulous tactics!

The Civic Committee FOR Incorporation has been meeting weekly in public sessions in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors since last March 15th. In all of this time not one single suggestion has been offered by anyone in opposition to the campaign to "SAVE LEMON GROVE

FOR LEMON GROVE." Thousands of local Lemon Grove people have banded together to save our community from dismemberment by our "eager" neighbors. People who are your friends and neighbors have openly for more than one year studied every possible aspect of incorporation. These people listed below are the members of the executive committee of the Civic Committee of 1000 FOR incorporation.

SCOUT NEWS

PACK 325

Cub Pack 325 of Spring Valley and Lemon Grove will hold their monthly meeting Friday night of this week at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist church, 8758 Troy street. The theme for this month is "See and Do It." The dens are choosing their own projects to work on. Den 3 is preparing a skit to be presented at the meeting. Den 4 will present colors. Refreshments will be served by den 2.

The family picnic of pack 325 held recently at El Monte park was written in the memoirs as being the best yet.

Cub Scouts of den 8, pack 318, November 11 toured the La Mesa Police department.

Officer Newman of the police force acted as guide for the Scouts and explained the functions of the department. He demonstrated the proper use of guns and fingerprinted the boys and issued them junior police badges.

Boys who visited the police department were: Jimmy Casteau, Eugene Kraszewski, Bobby Higdon, Jimmy Christensen, Ronnie Thill, David Godfrey, Bradley Hill and Gilbert Dordrich.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Lemon Grove Girl Scout Neighborhood will hold an important meeting Tuesday of next week, 9:30 a.m., in the Lemon Grove youth center.

Mrs. E. H. Loveland, chairman, requests that all leaders, co-leaders and committee mothers attend this meeting.

Club's Stand On Election Clarified

Mrs. Dorothy Nottingham, president of the Lemon Grove Woman's club juniors this week said her organization's co-operation with the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce's Committee of 1,000 For Incorporation did not involve the club's parent organization, the Lemon Grove Woman's club.

Mrs. Nottingham said there appeared to be some misapprehension as to which club was active in bringing the issue to a vote. She pointed out the senior group has a policy which rejects taking sides on political or controversial issues. Mrs. Nottingham said the Woman's club had been listed as a participant in an information pamphlet distributed by others than the senior or junior group.
